

When to Call Us

If you experience any of the following inform your healthcare team immediately:

- Shortness of breath or chest pain (If you have extreme chest pain, call 911)
- Fever higher than 100.5°F or shaking chills
- Excessive bleeding or bruising
- Irregular or rapid heartbeat
- Sudden change in your mental status- confusion, slurred speech or other symptoms

The following symptoms can be reported to your healthcare team within 24 hours:

- Vomiting that is unrelieved by prescribed medications
- Severe constipation or diarrhea or blood in the stool
- Painful or frequent urination or blood in the urine
- Extreme fatigue
- Soreness, redness, swelling, pus, or drainage at your catheter site
- Pain in a new place or pain that is not relieved by your pain medication
- Headache that is not relieved by over the counter medications
- Inability to eat for more than 24 hours and continued weight loss
- Mouth sores that interfere with your ability to eat or drink
- Nasal congestion, drainage, cough
- Any new numbness or tingling in hands or feet
- One or more of the following signs of dehydration
 - Dry, cracked lips or sticky tongue
 - Increased thirst and/or decreased urination
 - Increased weakness/dizziness/lightheadedness

How to contact your healthcare team:

Bergan Mercy Cancer Pavilion: (402) 393-3110

Methodist Estabrook Cancer Center: (402) 354-8124

Midwest Cancer Center Papillion: (402) 593-3141

Midwest Cancer Center Legacy: (402) 334-4773

Health Park Plaza/ Fremont: (402) 941-7030